

DANIELA PEDRINI | ITALY

Technical Director, Hospital-University of Bologna, Sant'Orsola Polyclinic – S.I.A.I.S. President.

Engineer. Daniela Pedrini lives in Modena (Italy) where she earned Classical High School diploma, bachelor degree in Civil Engineering in University of Bologna.

She has a long career in health, with important roles in the management of technical aspects of the hospital. Director of the Technical, Planning, Development and Investments Department of the Hospital-University Authority of Bologna – Sant'Orsola Polyclinic, one of the major hospitals in Italy. Has directed a multimillion PFI contract for the total renovation of the hospital's energy production. She is Project Manager for renovations and new hospital construction. She has served as speaker in many conferences in Italy and abroad. Co-founder and present President of "Italian Association of Architects and Engineers for Healthcare" (S.I.A.I.S.), 1 Vice President of IFHE (International Federation Hospital Engineering) and President of IFHE-EU. She has been honored with a medal of the Italian Republic Order of Merit.